More and more it is being recognized that the third party will run that way, unless it loses extra heavy from now on, when the Socialists and Prohibitionists may pay it.

Owing to war, prices of food-stuffs in the Balkan states are at most prohibitive. War must be almost as bad as a food trust, and prices there are approaching ours, where the stuff is raised.

Swamp Land Reclamation.

The Courier-Journal reproduced our article of last week relative to the drainage of submerged and overflowed lands in the county, and had the following editorial comment thereon:

The farmers of Muhlenberg county are getting interested in the drainage question and have taken initial steps in a movement for land reclamation. Thousands of acres of land in the county are practically useless because of being swampy or subject to overflow.

The same conditions prevail in many Kentucky counties and there is little effort to improve them. While a few counties have become sufficiently aroused to take up the proposition in a practical way, most of them are indifferent. The reclamation of swamp land is important, for this land when properly drained is highly productive. Much of the best land in the State is to be found in localities where through lack of drainage it is practically idle and unproductive. This land at one time may have been valueless or virtually so, but such is no longer the case. It is beginning to be accorded because of increasing population and by reason of the fact that much of the land once under cultivation has been worn out and almost entirely abandoned.

The soil of the swamp lands is next to inexhaustible. It represents the accumulations of centuries. The marsh area is diminishing slowly with the removal of timber and much of it already has been put under cultivation, with little success, however, except where tilling or open ditching has been done by the landowner. The swamp acreage is still large and to this must be added the lands that are subject to overflow. In some instances the overflow comes from small and ordinarily insignificant streams and the trouble could be remedied at comparatively small expense by straightening and deepening these streams and keeping them clear of obstructions which hinder the free flow of the water. There are few, if any, counties in the State in which the farmers are not contending with troubles of this kind which can and ought to be obviated by better drainage.

Swamps are pestiferous and low, wet lands are ideal breeding places for mosquitoes. The elimination of the swamps would virtually make malarial diseases unknown, as it is undeniable that these malarial diseases in proportion to the decreasing swamp area. In the interest of the public health and that larger production of agricultural staples which is so desirable from an economic standpoint there should be greater progress in reclamation.

A Correspondence Between The Hon. Cal Howett and Judge Price

Mountain View, Oct. 10th, 1912.

My Dear Judge: I notice in a correspondence that you had with the Hon. J. D. Dugan, you referred to the Democratic party as being bad medicine and that the people did not want to put it in control of our government. Now sir I am a Democrat true and tried, and I want to say to you that the Democratic party is the only political party that exists that can give satisfaction and peace to the people. And you know as I do that the Democratic party is a party for the people, by the people and of the people. Equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none. These are the fundamental principles and basis of the Democratic party. It is opposed to all trusts, combines, monopolies and giant industries and developments of every kind, and it is only by the Democrat party that peace and prosperity and contentment can be realized by the people. The Democrat party favors low tariff and free trade; it is opposed to the abominable protective tariff that is tyrannical and oppressive to the people of this country. Democracy favors cheap living, low prices; and you know that the common people want such state of affairs, like they were in the good old days of Jefferson and Jackson, and no sane person can consistently consider such a sentiment to be bad medicine. I want to say further that under Democratic rule there are no bosses, but the people rule. If the Democratic party gets in control of our government you shall see a wonderful change in the condition of things. I just wanted to call your attention to these facts, and now remain, Yours truly,

CAL HOWETT

Poplar Level, Oct. 22, 1912.

The Hon. Cal Howett.

My Dear sir: Yours of the 19th received, in which you intimate that I have misrepresented the Democratic party, by saying that it was considered to be bad medicine. You seem to have considerable assurance and confidence in the Democratic party. It has always been a mystery to me how some people can hang on with such tenacity to principles and theories that cease to have merit or force. Now you have expressed yourself to me that the fundamental principles of the Democratic party cannot be surpassed by those of any other party, and that the Democratic party is the party of the people, by the people and for the people, and that it advocates equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none. Such a sentiment is grand and noble; amendments enforcing this sentiment were enacted and placed in the Constitution of the United States by the Republican party, while the Democrat party opposed them bitterly and never have agreed to such ruling. Now does the Democrat party practice what it preaches? Is such a sentiment administered by the Democrat party where they rule? Let us see. In the Southland, the great hotbed of Democracy, where the orange and the lemons grow, the magnolias bloom and the Palmettoes wave, where the Democrat party rules and reigns over a solid south, what has been the controlling and governing spirit in the land of everlasting summer scenes? Has the Democratic party exercised and administered there the rights of government that is of the people, by the people and for the people, equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none? I charge that the Democrat party has failed to enforce this sentiment under the rule of Democracy. History and tradition will confirm the assertion. The Democratic party in the old south has abridged and overruled the political and civil rights of many of the people, those rights guaranteed to them by the constitution of the United States. And today under the rule of Democracy in the south it has established a plutocracy and a government of oligarchy, a government in which few rule the destiny of the masses. The Democracy of the south has a restrictive legislation against those who may not favor an oligarchical government. You know that thousands of the people under the rule of the Democrat party in the southern states cannot exercise their right of citizenship; then why do you contend that the Democrat party advocates equal rights to all the people and exclusive privileges to none, when you know that it is not practiced by Democracy. The Democrat party ruled over our Government for nearly half a century before the war, during which time the homestead and rationing prevailed with an administration of low tariff and free trade, with but little advancement and development, going slow and living cheap, and groveling in ignorance. It was not until the Republican party took charge of our government and placed around our industries and enterprises a protective tariff that our nation began to grow and prosper rapidly, growing up into higher civilization of inventions and achievements. The Democrat party was born and framed to suit only a home-spun era, and it cannot be consistently and appropriately applied to our advanced stage of progressiveness. After the Republican party had controlled and governed our country for twenty-five years, the Democrat party, by accident, was put in control, and it did not know the first principles of progressive government and reform, and it proved a failure in conducting national affairs successfully and it was clearly proven that a Democratic administration was not suited to govern in a progressive age and the advanced state of our civilization. The people of this nation now require a higher and a more perfect rule of political principles and policies than is found in the Democrat party. The Democrat party had its day back in the infancy of our country's history and can no longer be applied successfully to meet the demands and requirements of the present condition of our country. The free trade idea of the Democratic party constitutes some of the bad medicine that has a tendency to cause national health to become nausaeous and in a stupor that is very unpleasant to the people. With these explanations I shall close. And remain,

Yours,

J. B. PRICE.

Local Mention.

Next Monday is county court day.

There have been a few wagers laid here on the national election.

Not too early to engage that Thanksgiving turkey.

Just twelve days now until election. Yes, we are glad, too.

Get mounts for calendars, notes, etc. at this office.

Quite a number of cherry trees are in bloom over the county, but there is little outlook for a second crop of fruit.

Mr. John Martin, who has been confined to his home for some weeks from injuries to his spine, is able to be out, and his speedy recovery is expected.

No matter what you want in sewing machine supplies you can get it from Roark.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Taylor have a fine ten-pound boy, their first-born arriving Tuesday night.

Best one ever made—the Kirsch curtain rods; Roark has a large line.

Mrs. Sarah T. Hall and Miss Lullie Hall are spending some days here, visiting friends.

There will be a large crowd here next Monday, county court and political rallies combining to bring Muhlenbergers here in large numbers.

See Coombs & Co. before you sell your beef hides. 027

We have had several delightful rains during the past week, and there is not likely to be further dry spells of much duration.

Mr. Clair DeWitt left the first of the week for Logansport, Ind., where he expects to spend the winter studying the violin.

"Bob White" is without doubt the best flour on earth.

Miss Catherine Vize, who has been here some months, stenographer for the Greenville Coal Co. left the first of the week for Middlesboro, where she has accepted a position. During her stay here she made many friends.

When you get "Quail" meal you get the best that is to be had.

Persimmons and haws are ripening in the forests and fields, and the frisky possum is taking on fat against the day of his proud immolation amid a fringe of sugary yams. All of which is to remind us that French chefs are not everything.

Mr. Chas. Williamson, Vine Grove, was here this week on a visit to his sister, Mrs. R. F. Jarvis.

See the Outing baby sulky at Roark's, different and better than others.

While the city needs the money it is not an act of patriotism for an individual to turn his stock out so that he may be fined, just to give the old town a little ready cash.

Mr. John Summers, of Sulphur, Okla., was here the first of the week on a short visit to relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. B. Summers was here from Earles last Monday, visiting relatives. Mr. Mrs. Summers will leave for Sulphur, Okla., the latter part of the week, where they will reside for a year.

A legless man, driving four Texas hilly goats to a wagon attracted much attention here Sunday afternoon. He is traveling all over the country, and maintains himself by selling postcards with a picture of the outfit.

Vivian, the 13 year old daughter of Mr. R. P. Martin, died at the home near Nebo Monday, after a prolonged illness from consumption, from which her mother died a few weeks ago. She was a bright, attractive girl, and popular among a wide circle. Interment was in the graveyard at Green's Chapel Tuesday afternoon.

To The Public.

We desire to announce to the public that our new mill is now in full operation, and we will at all times have on hand the very finest quality of flour, meal and feed. We are very anxious to do custom grinding for our friends, and can give them the very best flour and wheat that is to be had anywhere, in exchange for their corn and wheat. HOME MILLING CO. (INC)

Makers of ready-to-wear clothing, who have been getting severe jolts for many years from the hundreds of tailored-to-order concerns, have been getting very busy themselves, and now there are many establishments selling all suits with two trousers; this is a great feature, and practically doubles the life of a suit.

New patterns in the Kirsch curtain rods received by Roark this week. Almost the full line in stock now.

Another man says that he is not for Teddy because he was what he was, or even because he is what he is, but for what he promises to be. Can you beat it?

Revival services are now being held all over the country, and reports from far and near are that great success is being had in the efforts at almost every point.

The car shortage in the country is reported to be more serious than at any time since October, 1907. We hope that this does not indicate another panic, as occurred along about that time.

The first ice of the season appeared yesterday morning. It was filmy, and only the very early risers saw it.

Mrs. Mollie Landrum, of Orlando, Fla., has been here for several days on a visit to Mrs. C. E. Roark and other relatives.

Residence Burned Yesterday Morning.

A residence on Trowbridge street belonging to C. S. Carl and occupied by G. W. Jolly was destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, a defective flue causing the blaze. The house was practically destroyed when the alarm was given, but Mr. Jolly and the neighbors succeeded in saving a considerable part of his household goods. There was insurance of $600 on the house and $300 on the contents, which fairly covers the loss.

Rev. R. H. Tandy has been selected by the ministers' association to preach the annual Thanksgiving sermon; the church in which the service will be held will be announced later.

Go to Sam R. Martin's tonsorial parlor and bath house for an easy, close shave or an up to date hair cut; near the Max Weir corner; leading barber shop in town, assisted by two first-class workmen.

"A Musical Dream," given at the Cumberland Presbyterian church by local talent last Thursday night, was an enjoyable affair that delighted the large audience attending. All the features were good, and reflected credit upon Miss Lelia Ivason DeWitt, who conducted the rehearsals and had supervision of the production. Quite a nice sum was realized for the church.

Mr. J. A. Gilman has joined Mr. F. A. Irvin in the agency for the Ford Motor Co., and will assist in selling the fifty cars they will place in the county during the season—we hope.

The 57th annual session of the Kentucky State Medical Association will convene in Dr. Powell's First Christian church, in Louisville, October 29, 30, 31. There will be many notable speakers, and papers and discussions of much interest and importance, while the attendance promises to eclipse any preceding meeting. Louisville is making extensive preparations to entertain its distinguished delegates and visitors, and the physicians and surgeons of the State have a pleasant and profitable visit in view.

Miss Lena Arnold has a full supply of bulbs as follows: Hyacinths for pot culture, 10c. each; colors: light and dark blue, yellow, white, pink, bright scarlet. Hyacinths for bedding, 75c. per dozen, in same colors. Chinese lilies 15c. each; white Narcissus, 4c. per bulb or 35c. per dozen.

The grading of the examination papers for rural carrier has been done, and all applicants know their standing. Most of the work ranked high; the appointment has not been made yet, but this will come soon, it is thought.

Lewis, son of Mr. Carroll Oates, died Monday at the home near Yeargin's Chapel, after a prolonged illness which was thought to have been hookworm. He was a bright and popular young man, and had many friends who mourn his loss.

An excursion train on I. C. road, carrying about 200 persons from Hopkinsville to Paducah to a W. O. W. celebration, was wrecked by a broken rail a few miles after leaving Hopkinsville, and about 60 persons were injured, many severely but none fatally.

Death of Mrs. W. A. Armstrong

Annie Princett, wife of Capt. W. A. Armstrong, was found dead in bed at their home yesterday morning. She was in her 72nd year, and for some years had been a sufferer from heart trouble, which was the cause of her death. She was a Miss Oates, daughter of B. E. Oates, and was a member of a prominent family of the county pioneers in its development. Her body will be laid to rest in the graveyard at Unity church at 2 o'clock today, and a large crowd will be in attendance.

Messrs. Irvin & Gilman, agents for the Ford Motor Co., are proving aggressive representatives of this popular line of cars, and it is hoped they may place many of these excellent vehicles in service over the county.

Take your beef hides to J. E. Coombs & Co. and get the cash.

DR. ELMER T. HALL DIES

In Atlanta Last Thursday and the Body Was Brought Here for Burial Last Sunday.

Dr. Elmer Trowbridge Hall was born at Lima, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1872 and died at Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 17, 1912. He came with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Hall to Greenville, Ky. in 1885 where his father was President of the College. He graduated there with the degree of A. B. in 1891 and taught in that College for several years. Afterward he spent two years at Vanderbilt University and was admitted to the Bar in Greenville, Ky. in 1896. When his mother removed to Kirksville, Mo., he accompanied her, and later took up the study of Osteopathy at that place, graduating in 1899. He practiced six years in Watertown, N. Y., and the last seven years in Atlanta, Ga. He was married in 1898 to Miss Laura Brewington, of Kirksville, Mo., by whom he is survived. He leaves a son, Edwin Brewington Hall, his mother, Mrs. Sarah T. Hall, of Kirksville, Mo., and his sister Miss Lullie T. Hall, of Atlanta, Ga. He was converted in childhood and joined the Methodist church, of which he remained a member through his life. He was a member of the S. A. E. fraternity at Vanderbilt, and of the Masonic fraternity. The cause of death was an abscess of the bowel, which an operation failed to relieve. The body was brought here, arriving Saturday and was carried to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Martin. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. G. P. Dillon, delivering an appropriate and feeling address. The Masons then took charge of the services, escorting the body to the cemetery, the pallbearers being Dr. C. B. Martin, Geo. Eaves, Chas. W. Roark, J. H. Pittman, Dr. E. R. Vost and M. L. Boggess, fellow Masons and former schoolmates. The impressive rites of the order were given, in the presence of a vast throng. Floral offerings from friends here and elsewhere were numerous and beautiful. Dr. Elmer T. Hall was a man of whom all our people were proud. He was a man of much force of character, and possessed the happy faculty of making and holding friends. His death has caused sincere sorrow among a wide circle.

Death of Rufus W. Jernigan.

Mr. Rufus W. Jernigan, aged 44 years, one of the prominent farmer and citizens of his section, died at his home three miles northeast of town at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. He was ill only a few days, and Sunday submitted to an operation for relief from an abscess of the bowels, but complications arose, and could not be controlled. Rev. Howard conducted a service at the home at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and interment was made in Evergreen cemetery here. Deceased is survived by his wife and eight children, who have the sympathy of a wide circle of relatives and friends. His community has lost a valuable member.

Miss Nola Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Green, of Green's Chapel neighborhood, and Mr. Andrew O. Roll, of this city, were married in Louisville at noon Monday, in the presence of quite a number of relatives and friends. Both are popular young people, and have the best wishes of everyone. After a short visit in Louisville they will be at the home here with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Roll. The bride will be a welcome addition to local social circles, and the groom is employed with the W. G. Duncan Coal Co. at Luzerne.

Voters of Muhlenberg County.

I was in your county four days and tried to see all the voters possible in the limited time I had. I made six speeches in the county and I make this statement that you may know I am making an active canvass and will defeat R. V. Thomas, Jr., for Congress in this district if the voters in Muhlenberg County will go to the polls and vote for me regardless of whom they vote for in the Presidential race. Put your stencil opposite my name if you are a Roosevelt man for if you fail to do this you are adding one-half vote to Thomas.

I stand for policies which insure a continuation of prosperity and protection to the farmer and wage earner while Thomas stands upon a platform which advocates the same tariff legislation that produced want and misery throughout this country under the Cleveland administration. I am going to win if this county will do her duty. If you really want to defeat Mr. Thomas now is your opportunity.

GOOD MANAGEMENT OF COWS

Best Season for Animals to Come Fresh in Autumn—Calves Are Then Easier to Raise.

Major Henry E. Alford, in the Iowa Homestead, says: "Of the prime object is to produce the greatest quantity of milk of the best quality and at the greatest profit from any given number of cows within a year, the evidence is overwhelming that the cows should be managed so as to calve in the autumn months. For like reasons September is the best month

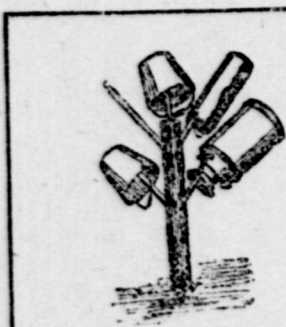

A Well-Bred Cow.

In most parts of the country for a better to drop her first calf in order to best develop as a cow, and this is most readily of the age of the animal at first calving. Calves born in the fall are easier reared and make better cows than those born in the spring or summer. It seems needless to rehearse the stock arguments on this subject, based upon the long experience of successful dairymen, but a brief recapitulation may be useful. The cow or better calving in the fall needs the most healthy and nutritious pasture first following the strain and while coming into full flow. Just at the time when some falling off is likely to occur, the animal is brought to the stable and receives good care. The winter feeding and the returns from it may be depended upon to exceed the mid-summer results for a like period. At the state of milking and of gestation, when another dropping off in the milk yield may be looked for, the fresh pasture induces a fresh flow, lengthens the milking season and increases the product. December and January are good months in which to control and supervise the service of the bull."

SUNLIGHT FOR MILK UTENSILS

One of the Best Known Disinfectants—Nothing Better for Cans After Being Washed.

Sunlight is one of the best of disinfectants and it is free to everybody. There is nothing like good sunning and airing for milk utensils after they have been thoroughly washed and scalded, says the Farmers Mail and Breeze. The drawing shows a handy sun rack on which cans, pails and strainers may be conveniently hung. It is just as useful for kitchen utensils. Such a rack may be made from the upper portion of the main stem of a tree, leaving as many stubs of limbs for brackets as will be needed. Or holes may be bored diagonally into any soft wood post and brackets inserted.

Points of a Dairy Cow.

The cow is a machine to convert food into milk. Thus she must have a large middle and strong constitution to insure best results. She must also have a large udder, large milk wells, large crooked milk veins and good sized teats. Her head should be lean and angular in appearance, with the eyes standing out prominently. The neck should be rather long and clean in appearance, the shoulders pointed and the backbone rather prominent. The skin should be loose and soft to the touch.

Sell Nonpaying Cows.

Very few men will hesitate in disposing of a nonpaying cow if he can be convinced that she is in that class. It is ignorance alone that keeps so many poor milkers as work milking poor cows.

Least Waste of Cream.

If the milk is separated immediately after it is drawn and before the animal warmth has time to escape there will be the least possible waste of cream.

"The Only Thing That Will Relieve Neuralgia."

The piercing pains of Neuralgia, which often follows a bad cold or La Grippe, are frequently almost unbearable, and few medicines afford any relief to the sufferer.

"I am a rural mail carrier and have been a user of the Dr. Miles' medicines for years.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills can't be beaten. They are the only thing I have found that will relieve my neuralgia and I have tried most everything, besides medicine from the doctor. I am willing to tell anyone what the Anti-Pain Pills did for me."

CHARLES HILDBRANDT, Box 205, Woodville, Ohio.

If you, like Mr. Hildbrandt, "have tried most everything" in vain, why not do as he did, fight your aches and pains with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Let the pills bear the brunt of the battle. No matter how stubborn the contest, they will come out victorious.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills stand on their record, which is a long list of cures extending back a generation.

Druggists everywhere sell them. If first package fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is not a symptom of, and not to treat a true disease. We think of indigestion, flatulency, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms, only, of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that most popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Acting direct to the stomach nerves, it brought about the cure and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With it the old original and highly vital principle, so much better accomplished and more effective than any other stomach medicine, is now in Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Tablets or liquid—and see for your self what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.
